SUMMER RESORTS.

WHY MAINE MEANS MOST TO A HOST OF NATURE LOVERS

Things are on a big scale in this part of vacation land. The Belgrade lakes and the great Moosehead lake section in the woods.

Delights of trout fishing and of canoeing in the wilderness.

Maine pictures he just wants to go there. That's all there is about it. He fidgets wen't be happy till his one great desire one vacation "down 'n Maine." the one place in the East that reains unsullied all its primitive glory nd that in spite of the thousands of de who lose themselves in its con- Then a couple hours to clean and broil ines every summer in ail, sport. But what's the use of working on a man's sensibilities by glorifying Maine as a game country at this time of the year, when the hunting season is far away? That is taking an unfair advantage. It is hard enough for a man to sit still or give half an ear to his business when he begins to think of those places up in Maine, or down in Maine, as you has been cruel enough to launch into the has been cruel enough to launch into the probably lose control of himself altogether. And besides it is only the heensed to the probably lose control of himself altogether.

This yarn is particularly for the men, with what some one else said and his creel and start back.

and start off to a ball game just to forget that he still has a month to wait.

ld time settlements, all savoring more

And then the other picture is of the great back country, the forest, the ers' life or the canoeists'. All this is in-lies the Allegash and St. John's ver lands. If you follow these streams you reach the northeast corner

United States, and just across ine into New Brunswick is the is Restigouche country. And to ne back into Maine again one strikes for fun and solid enjoyment.

hat is true, too. Even the well worn phrase "Where has nature been more avish in the bestowal of her charms, ac." applies without stretching the Pork is Long Pond.

Two or three fishing camps are set resorts, its pretty girls,

When a person looks at a book full of | Just woods and lake and mountain. Up and down the long slopes of the is supposed to be the pack hurriedly hills the trail winds over little brooks dropped by the great chief, while the and makes it perfectly clear that on the stepping stones and around the other, Kokadjo, is his overturned kettle. edge of swamps where the cedars grow. is satisfied. For there is not a man living the satisfied of the spark of life through the trees and we pull out the surface to a height of nearly one thousands. him and who has kept his ears open to has not always wanted to spend at fallen tree. Over there on the edge of observatory an unobstructed view is had the shallows they are rising. By the conquered and lie in a row in the bow, covered with leaves to keep the flies off. picturesque wooded islands.

as many as we want; a trip to the spring, and a nap in the shade. romen and children who don't know They seem to be over at the outlet in the afternoon and as soon as the sun know it, and don't have to be told. And starts to decline we will put out on the each thinks he knows it better than any pond again. Seven more in an hour other human. He couldn't be contented and then we call it a day, pack the with what some one else said and his only satisfaction in reading about Maine is to pick holes in another's ideas. So it is a bold thing to do to try to give the right color to Maine. Any picture falls so far short that there is bound to be a comeback.

Everything on a Big Scale.

Everything in Maine comes on a large scale. It is the place for big fun, big appetites, big sleeps, big fish, big game in all, sport. But what's the use of working on a man's sensibilities by glorifying occurry—well, there are plenty who that is eight miles long, and finally emerges upon the shores of Moosehead Lake at Kineo Station, directly opposite the New Mount Kineo House, According to the legend, there was once an old Indian who was chief of the whole nation and could do what-One day while on his ever he desired. way through the Maine forests he came upon two moose, and hurriedly dropping his pack, started in pursuit of the animals. The smaller moose, Kineo Mountain, was soon overtaken and killed. The chief, after boiling some of the meat, turned his kettle upside down to keep it from rusting and followed on after the second moose, which he caught up with and despatched at Castine, on the shores of Penobscot Bay, which fringes the Maine coast. A few miles to the east of Kineo lie the two Spencer Mountains, one of which, Sebotawan,

Here is a massive hornblende mountime the sun is overhead ten fine fish, expanse of Moosehead Lake stretching averaging a pound apiece, have been out to the north and south in glittering splendor, dotted here and there with

POLAND SPRINGS AND

THE BELGRADE LAKES Poland Spring, is easly reached from season the first week in August at the of the White Mountains as one of the features of the scenic display. Roads which are exceptionally good for days following the show. riding and motoring, golf links, lakes Westbury and Cincinnati teams and will

Lakes are also readily accessible from Portland, and these are places where the hotel accommodations are ample and where campers and sportsmen can find no end of enjoyment. From Portland also the paveller starts for the never to be forgotten and delightful trip up Songo River and Scharo Lake

The eleventh day is a seventy-one mile run to Briarchiff Manor, and then a twenty-nine mile spin over the Albany post road to New York.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS ALREADY WELL FILLED

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va June 7.-It was announced here this week that the annual White Sulphur Horse Show, inaugurated five years ago by the The world famous fashionable resort, then President Taft, will be held this The situation of the spring Meadows Stock Farm. In addition to here for the summer. is delightful, with the Presidential range the usual two days horse show events there will be a polo tournament for two abounding in fish, boating, bathing, &c., westbury and Cincinnati teams and will are comprised in the enticements for be the first of a series of annual matches in the State. Details of arrangements central range of the Berkshire hills. The Green Mountains on the north, the Litchfield Hills on the south, the Catskill range on the west and October and Washington mountains in the east are all visible.

MAINE'S WOODS HAVE AN APPEAL ALL THEIR OWN

The third day takes the tourist through Pittsfield. Lanesboro and New Ashford to Manchester, Vt., and the fourth day's schedule of the trip includes the Peru Mountain Pass and terminates at Lake Sunapee. Leaving Lake Sunapee, the fifth day's run carries the tourist into the White Mountains by way of the Franconia North to the Profile House.

The day following is also spent in the White Mountains. It is only a short eighteen mile run to Bretton Woods. To make up for the little distance to be covered on the sixth day, the next day's tour is eighty-four miles through the famous Crawford Notch to Poland Springs, in the heart of the most beautiful section of Maine.

The eighth day's trip is through Portland to Newčastle, near Portsmouth, N. H., and the ninth day sees the tourist in Boston after a ride through Newburyport. Ipswich and other historic places. From Boston the motorist goes to Waterbury. Conn., over excellent roads. This is the longest day's trip in the schedule, 152 miles.

The eleventh day is a seventy-one mile

SEASON HAS STARTED

SEASON HAS STARTED

AT NARRAGANSETT PIER NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., June 7. Narragansett is anticipating an early cottage season and the arrival of numerous members of the villa colony during the past week indicates that cottagers are opening their summer homes at this resort somewhat earlier than usual. Along Ocean road and in and around the Pier there is an air of activity, and each week one notes the increase in the arrival of motor touring cars bringing cottagers

Several new villas have been erected in this region of Rhode Island since last season, and Tower Hill has been chosen as a site for two summer residences. Willard P. Ward of New York has built a bungalow on the crest of Tower Hill which he has named the Allview.

SUMMER RESORTS. VERMONT.

GOLF Equinox House

MANCHESTER-IN-THE-MOUNTAINS VERMONT.

Opens June 25 Large cottage to rent, adjoining hotel,

Send 2 Cents

"The Call of Vermont" It tells all about the splen-did summer places in

Vermont Lake Champlain

Green Mountains

It gives the rates at 275 hotels and boarding places, the atti-tude, the number of people accommodated, distance from station, stage, steamer and electric connections, etc.

Has the finest beach and the safest bathing in the world. The temperature of the water is delightful; there is no undertow and the beach is free from holes; 500 feet wide, 6 miles long, firm and smooth as a boulevard. For further information, booklets, etc., address New York Sun or the following hotels:

Hotel,
THE EVERETT.
THE VESPER
THE OCEAN HOUSE & COTTAGES
THE BATCHELDER.
THE ABROTT
THE NEW LINWOOD
REVERE HOUSE.
THE SEA SIDE HOUSE.

SUMMER RESORTS.

MAINE.

White Mountains N.H. Most Attractive Mountain Resort

in America 10,000 Acres of Glorious Vacation Land. THE MOUNT PLEASANT Opens June 18th Closes Oct. 1st.

RALPH J. HERKIMER, Manager. THE MOUNT WASHINGTON Opens July 9th.
D. J. TRUDEAU, Manager.

RAILROADS: Through service via: N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. and B. & M. R. R.

NEW YORK OFFICE: 243 Fifth Avenue.

VERMONT.

Telephone: 9230 Madison Square

ON LAKE CHAMPLAIN "The Queen of Lake Resorts

WHERE HEALTH AND PLEASURE ABOUND

Visit Burlington this Summer. The beautiful spe with all a city's amusements plus those of a mountain and lake resort. Visit the State University, cathedra and churches, libraries, historical points of interest fine old residences.

Large up-to-date hotels, theatres, roof gardens Trolley trips through mountains of wondrous beauty Excursions to points on beautiful Lake Champlain Boating, fishing, bathing, golf and tennis. Miles of good automobile roads.

A resort with such a diversity of entertainment that if you visit there this Summer it will be one of many visits delightfully spent.

HOTEL VERMONT Third season. Open all the year. Lorgest and finest hotel in the Robt. F. Collamer, Mgr.

Open June 1st to Nov.

Beautiful roof garden

MAINE.

MAINE

անատիանանություննան անաբարանական արևարարարարանական առաջանին անաբարանական հետաարարան անաբարանական անաբարան հետա

Forest Lakes of MAINE

CEND for the booklet. It tells of a vacation land more wonderful than you can imagine.

Thousands of square miles of fresh and beautiful forest where deer and moose are browsing.

world.

You live at one of the log-built, permanent camps whose com-

Or set up your own camp with an Indian or white guide, sleep in a tent on hemlock boughs, eat campfire cooking, breathe pinespruce-laden air.

Every day will be filled with wonderful new experiences. You will come out brown, clear-eyed, steady-nerved-and with mem-

Isn't it the vacation you've been ACHING for? You can take it easily and at surprisingly small cost.

Three solid through express trains from New York daily.

THE NEW ENGLAND LINES

From Se. Station, Boston, Mass. or call at City Ticket Office, 171 Broadway, New York City, N.Y.

Of course the word Maine brings at once two pictures to a person's mind. It is the Maine seashere with its quaint less of fish, with its gay summer sports, yachting, the land sports and all the busy life of a seashore place. Maine Woods with a big W. And that picture of course includes lake and mountain resorts, life made utterly comfortable by all the conveniences to be found in a Riverside Drive apartment: and then that life of the wilds, the camp-Maine, and of course a whole lot more The vacation in the Maine woods is the vacation worth while. There is the Rangeley Lake country, the Belgrade akes country and the great Moose-Lake section, to the north of

The Canoe Trips You May Take. one is not entirely familiar with back country, the woods of Maine. It is the map, any true lover of the ds can spend hours dreaming over map of Maine. All the blue spots at lakes, and there isn't a State in Inden that has so many spots on Maine. And that is speaking well he Pine Tree State too, for every and every connecting river speaks fun and solld enjoyment.

The Cance Trips You May Take.

Here is the real beginning of a trip planned by nature so that the interest increases at each stage of the journey. Slow streams with a few easy carries, a succession of beautiful lakes, each differing from the other and growing more pictusesque and interesting as the cance covers mile after mile, the stillness of the deep forest, broken only by the swish of the paddle and the singing of the birds. As the trip progresses the scenery grows more wild, the water quicker until Churchill Lake is reached, and a quick plunge through a mile of white water and you are floating on Allagash waters. f the Pine Tree State too, for every pot and every connecting river speaks Proostook has become synonymous white water and you are floating on Allagliroad of course claims for that reion the distinction of being "The Naion's Playground." And it comes pretty far being true at that. After a visition the Aroostook, "it is easy to under the Aroostook, "it is easy to under ion's Playground." And it comes pretty far being true at that. After a visition the Aroostook, "it is easy to under ion of Chesuncook Lake, eighteen miles iong, with a fine view of Katahdin in the distance. gion the distinction of being "The Naon's Playground." And it comes pretty to the Aroostook, "It is easy to underand the thralldom of the woods." And

> TRAINS NOW TAKE YOU TO MOOSEHEAD LAKE

There is no part of Maine which has been less promoted than that section which borders the Kennebec Valley, stretching away north to where the here and there among the trees, but waters are but a rippling stream. The close to the shore of the pond is a main reason for this lack of attention is betamp well up the slope to catch the cause until about half a dozen years includes Thomaston, the rolling foothills breeze and a little cleared space to ago there was no railroad which pened of the Berkshires. Canaan, Great Barringconnect them together. It is all you trated the forests beyond Bingham. But ton, Stockbridge and Lenox, Mass. need to make comfortable but not a now the Maine Central has gone up.

guide who may light fires on the State and a half miles wide and Long Lake riders will assemble at the Colwell Farm seven miles long and one and a quarter after an early hunt breakfast. Lawrence On this interesting trip, which has now become undoubtedly the most popular in Maine, the starting point is at midgets and have most beautiful sur-

IDEAL TOUR CALLS
THE MOTORISTS FORTH

Motor folks who have tasted the delights of trips into New England have welcomed the convenience afforded them by the "Ideal Tour." This tour supplies the need for a well planned motor route through New England, which will take in a majority of the places people want to see, and at the same time will give promise of such hotel accommodations as they wish for.

IDEAL TOUR CALLS
THE MOTORISTS FORTH

Shower baths which have been installed are a marked addition to the spacious club house.

With the unusually early arrival of a number of the cottagers the season has started in with a rush. The White Sulphur Springs Hotel will open for the season on June 25, and judging from the unusually heavy bookings for the summer as well as the fall the season will probably be the biggest in the history of the Springs.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins and Miss Katherine Elkins have leased the cottage occupied by them here last summer and are returning early in July. Later they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee. as they wish for.

can be run off in eleven days, or people may take as many weeks to it. The route starts out from New York along the sound, then strikes up into the Berkshires sound, then strikes up into the Berkshires, following north to Manchester and the Green Mountains. Good roads are the feature of the tour and they are followed closely on the way over into the White Mountains section. Returning from Bretton Woods the tour takes on through Poland Springs, Portland and Boston.

June Guests at Resort Will Include Count and Countess.

The first day takes the mororist from New York along the Boston post road and on to Waterbury, Conn. Following the Naugatuck Valley, the second day's route includes Thomaston, the rolling foothills who spent last year in Europe, will oc-all that that well known part of State of Maine affords. Southward all that that Maine affords. Southward all that that well known part of State of Maine affords. Southward affords are free from black files and midgets and have most beautiful surforders. Fishing for bass lasts until October, and the fish rise to the fig as late as the middle of August. Belgrade is only five hours ride from Boston and the attractive village has hotel accommodations that leave nothing to be desired.

The probability of the Penobscot region and on down to a single canoe, $1 for two canoes.

The probability of the Penobscot region and on down to a single canoe, $2 for two canoes.

The tour which has been mapped out DE CHAMBRUNS AT HOT SPRINGS who spent last year in Europe, will oc-cupy her cottage, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howe of Washington, will occupy one of the

At Lenox there is the Hotel Aspinwall, by Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward Ford and their

A Vacation in the REAL OUT-OF-DOORS

EXQUISITE. WILD LAKES many of them almost unknown to the outside Canoe trips, some of them 200 miles long, down marvelous forest rivers. The finest game fishing in America.

fort and good fare are one of the wonders of this country.

ories you wouldn't sell.

send for FREE Booklet today

Address VACATION BUREAU

իրը։ Որուսինառագրությանը անագորյան հանգորձում այր հանձրվա հարարարկը: Որուսիայան